Lagoon 55 'ADEL'

from 19'500 EUR p/week | 16.56m | Greece

Classical painter Erika Voith was invited to bring a distinctive artistic dimension to the atmosphere aboard ADEL. After spending time on board and experiencing the yacht firsthand, her involvement evolved beyond the creation of original artwork.

She also contributed bespoke decorative elements and thoughtful refinements to both the interior and exterior, enhancing ADEL's unique character and sense of harmony.

At the heart of the collaboration lies one simple concept: connection.

A shared appreciation for Greece, yachting, catamarans, art, elegance, beautiful destinations, privacy, and exceptional food and drink comes together aboard ADEL. The result is a catamaran where art, lifestyle, and the spirit of the Mediterranean are seamlessly intertwined.

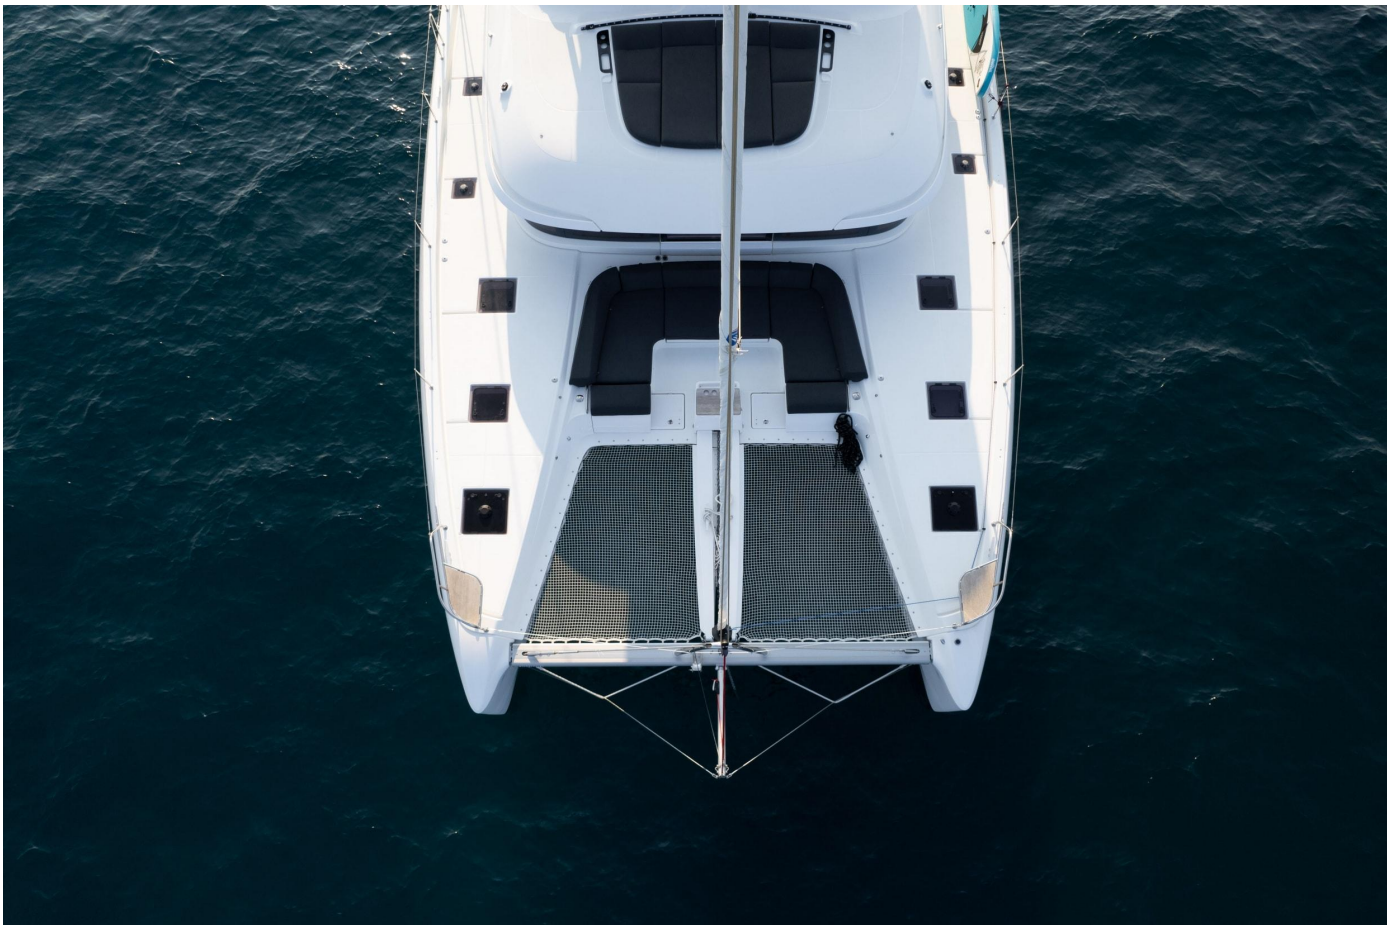

A dedicated crew of three is accommodated in separate crew quarters amidships, ensuring attentive yet discreet service while preserving guests' privacy throughout the charter. Enhancing the onboard experience, ADEL features a carefully curated vinothèque showcasing exceptional Greek and international wines. To complete the journey, our team creates bespoke local food and wine pairings, celebrating the finest regional ingredients and perfectly matched wines to create a truly authentic Greek gastronomic experience.

KEY POINTS

- Bespoke interiors curated by artist Erika Voith
- Four elegant en-suite cabins for eight guests
